Pay a visit to the Luxury Wedding Show London and meet the team at Wedding Flowers and the experts from top London florists McQueens

Ever fancied a one-to-one chat about your big-day blooms with one of the UK's leading floral designers? Well now you can! Wedding Flowers and Wedding will be co-hosting the McQueens Floral Inspiration stand at the forthcoming Luxury Wedding Show London from 22 to 23 October 2011.

Held at the swanky Saatchi Gallery on the King's Road in Chelsea, this show promises to be the most exciting event on the bridal calendar this year, with other exhibitors including Browns Bride, The Dorchester hotel, photographer Julia Boggio, wedding planner Mark Niemierko and leading honeymoon experts Turquoise Holidays. Visit the show for your opportunity to book an appointment with wedding flower gurus Hannah Martin and Luis da Silva from McQueens, the A-list florists who are celebrating their 20th anniversary in the business this year. Simply put your name down, browse the rest of the show, then come back for your time slot to find out what floral creations the talented team can make for your big day. Should you choose, you could also have a mini masterclass and learn how to make a hand-tied bouquet, simple tablecentre or buttonhole. Please bring along your scrapbooks and ideas to show them too! If the thought of making your own big-day designs appeals, you could also take advantage of special offers from McQueens and sign up to one of its ever-popular wedding flower courses at their internationally-renowned school.

The Wedding Flowers team will also be on hand to help with your queries, as well as providing you with the opportunity to buy Wedding Flowers and Wedding at discounted show prices. See you there!
